BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Reports that estimates for building carriages - the purchase of which have been sanctioned in G.O. of 11-Sep-1919, - were received from two firms and states that it is better to order one carriage each pattern from London and get some more built later on in the local firms. Mr. Solih's opinion is that -

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The two carriages proposed to be got from Messrs. Offord & Sons, London, is estimated to cost £76 + £81 or £157 ~~or less~~ As under the present rate of exchange (25.4³ the uper) the cost would be about Rs 1345^{in the aggregate} exclusive of the cost of freight-etc ~~less~~

Dear Sir,

With reference to your favour G. 24571 dated 29th of April ordering Carriages from Offord & Sons, that firm now write us:-

" We thank you for your favour enquiring for two comfortable seating Carriages as built by Studebaker.
" This firm however, have discontinued making this type of Carriage, consequently we cannot supply these.
" We are hoping in a few days to have a very good Carriage of the type you name - secondhand-but without Canopy.
" If this would be likely to suit you we shall be glad to give you a description"

We have asked them to submit us quotation accordingly, but of course we should not be able to confirm execution of what they offer in substitution without your sanction.

Dear Sir,

In further reference to your Indent G 24571 dated 29th of April, for Carriages.

We send under separate cover catalogue from Offord & Sons Ltd. They write:-

" Referring to your further favour of the 5th inst, we " beg to say that the Secondhand Carriage offered to
" you a few days ago is now sold, but we have a number
" of English Carriages as shewn in the booklet enclosed
" herewith and marked with a red cross, the prices of " these secondhand are now 45 to 50 guineas.
" The extra charge for a light hood with side curtains
" would be approximately £25"

They further write as follows:-

" Referring to your favour, we beg to say that the " Carriages marked in our booklet are the only type
" we are in a position to offer together with one or two
" Waggonettes to seat 6 persons facing from side to side
" in the rear part"
